PULASKI TENN FRIDAY MORNING, NOV'R 9, 1866

NEW Goods .- The new advertisement of Messre. WARD & SHAPARD will attract at. Theophilus Duncan. tention -- especially the attention of the ladies.

ARCHITECTURE .- Mr. LeMoin has taken Mr. Williamson into his office, and hereafter the firm will be LeMoine & Williamson, No. 11 north Cherry street, Nashville-P. O. Box 375.

More Potatoes .- We are indebted to more of the same sort,

A GOOD SALE .- The Ballentine Tract, which lies adjoining town on the south, containing 1,043 acres, was sold in four tracts on Monday at an average of $90 50 per acre. One tract was bid off by our energethic young friend, Andrew Ballentine, at $100 per acre. Two store-houses, five store-house lots and four office lots were also sold for an average good price. The family residence was bought by Mrs. Ballentine for $10,000. The tract adjoining town on the north brought $36 per acre. The land was all bought in by the lega-tees of the estate. The Price of Pork.

There has been considerable enquiry and speculation as to the price of pork in this market. If we were dependent alone upon our own resources, the demand here would perhaps overreach the supply, and the price probably be as high if not higher than last year. But neighboring counties have made bountiful crops and fattened a great many hogs, and they will supply the deficiency here. The Shelby ville Republican says the price there last year ranged from ten to twelve cents, but this year it bids fair to be two or three cents lower, with a larger quantity in market than usual.

DRS. GRANT & ABERNATHY .- By reference to the card of these gentlemen it will be seen that they have changed their office to the old printing office building, near the Presbyterian Church. We join the populace in an expression of gratification at the success of our physicians during the past summer, and especially during the cholera epidemic here. Not a single case of cholera was lost by any of them in which they were called in reasonable time. The eminent success and popularity of the two mentioned above, since their association, about a year ago, will be peculiarly gratifying to those who shared the camp and the bivouse with them during the late war.

No Election.

The election for Representative was a failure in this county on Thursday, 1st inst By some oversight or misunderstanding polls were only opened in one or two districts, and in these the election was illegally held. This will be regretted by all good citizens, from the fact that it not only cheats us out of a representative in the present important session of the Legislature, but manifests that the people have grown apathetic and indifferent to all matters of public concern. True the laws governing elections in this State are burdensome and them by defeating their advocates at the ballot box-even under their own restrictions. This can be done very easily, if the people can be aroused to an effort. There is a conservative element even among the privileged few of this county strong enough to defeat radicalism; and it is so with all the counties of Middle and West Tennessee. The only difficulty is to convince the good people of the fact that they are strong enough to defeat radicalism at the ballot box, and thereby secure the repeal of all odious laws now disgracing the statute books of
